costive use, prims in either side, joundice or diarrhaza, with all ctions of the head, pains, dizziness, drowsiness, rhount tie affections of the pints, affections of the bladder, or piles, sick head-che so common with feelt badder, or piles, sick head-che so common with feelt badder.

Certificate from Benjamin Knower, E. q.— Having suffered for some time with indigestion and flattency. I we advise do try Dr Primmey's Anti-Dyspeptic or Bilious Pills, and after using them for some time, am propered to say that they are the mild at and yit the most efficacious in their operation of my article of the kind I have ever used, and what I steem of great importance they occasion no sickness at the storach, procedring full, free, and satisf ctory descharges, having the bowds in a natural condition. And I the more abserfully recommend their use to all who are of bilious habits, or need an excellent family medicine, in consideration of the high standing of the proprietor to the commonity, as amodical man.

Extract. Its sup-riority over the D coctions and Syrum sometime smade use of is strikingly apparant. It obvious the necessity of preparing frish syrup, and which renders it inc. puble of holding much of the pure extractive matter in solution.— One bottle of the Fluid Extract is fully equal to g llon of the syrup, or the decoction, as usually ing every change of climate—nor will it loss my of its lustre by g—being all m de of dauble thickness, will be found on comperison cheaper not stronger than Foreign or Cylinder Gless.

Orders addressed to them either at Troy or Bedford, will be executed with care and promptet. The uniform testimony of medical men in its favor, and the great success which has attended its introduction, both in hespitals and private practice, is a convincing groof of its value, and of its superiority over other prepartions of the Surseprille.
